Fun with basic abbreviations!

Fill in the blanks, all of which are abbreviations of some sort, including -es graph, -er graph, special p, wch/wth, tildes.

_____ I am right glad of your masters health & of your good hope of his spedie retorne and yet at his ________ I wold have thought Michaelmas as long tyme as for many cawses it is, God guide hym, blesse hym, ‘and’ prosper hym, and I pray you in your returne of writing vnto hym to besech hym for me to accept my humble Comendacons and to retaine his wonted opinion of my redines to doe hym all the services that I am hable, and my continuance in harty praier for hym/ Touching the matter of your letter for the course that king henry kept in dissolution of abbies, I am sorie I am so little hable to satisfie, for therof I have utterlie no notes or writings whervpon I am hable to ground any instructions./ But what I am hable I will set downe as I have vnderstooode by that _____ I have red & heard.

The first entrance was a ________ given by Cardinall Wolsey who vnder ________ and for better habilitie to build his sumptyous Colledge dissolved Certaine smale howses and by that doing of hym self (I dout not with good warrant from Rome) he dyd make lese in other the conscience toward those howses.
After hym ther came to the kings service Mr Cromewell who had served the Cardinall in those former doinges

That Cromwall was the man that by his zeale his wisdom and his Courrige was ______ ______ to carry all to good effect. These means he vsed.

He first found meanes to __________ the king that it lawfully might be done That for his Crowne and state in safetie it was it was [sic] necessarie to be done, for that he made appere to the king how by their meanes the Pope and clergie so great aucthoretie reuene alliance and prinsipallie _______ of the soules, and obedience of _______ that they weare able to putt ______ in hazard of their will.

That for his revenue and __________ of his estate wares & affaires both in warr and peace, at home and abrode ____ others it was most profitable to disolue them for _________ of his tresure

He allied the king so strongly ____ mighty forens in Germany, and that leauge [sic] of religion so as ____ their forces & his treasure and the _____________ of ______ ____ by their comon enemy the pope he was hable to with stand and encountre any foren princes so at the Popes ______ and _________ his kingdome to the occupanti wold make any attempt against hym[.] This aliance was both by leauge [sic] ____ Saxonie and other and the mariage ____ the sister of Cleue.

The Emperour and french king were so in hostillitie that eyther of them was glad to wine king Henry to his _____, wherby either of them feared to irritate hym lest he coyning ____ the other might make to hard a match against the invader, wherby

I thinke that the same hostillitie was cherished by Cromewells

Pollicie, whervpon grewe the play in france wherin were shewed the Emperor and the french king playing at tennise and the king of England paying for the balles, beside that though they had not bene in hostillitie, yet wither of them durst suffer the other to overgrow by impropriating to hym self anie thing in England, and so the Emperor hymself was glad to sit still allthough the ______ ground in shewe of the quarrell touched hym in honor for his Auntes ________.

Cromewell caused ________ to go abroade & maintained them to instruct the people and to ______ the _______ consciences to stand fast to the king ____ feare of the Popes curse or his dissoluuing of ther allegiance.

He caused to be placed in the Archebishops seate Cranmer and in ______ other bishoprickes & hie places in the Clergie ______ ____________ by meanes wherof he was hable to execute great ______ among themselues, and they were not hable so muche as to enter into any full and ________ counsell against hym, muche lesse to putt any thing in publike denuntation and execucon as against the former ______ of this realme.

He knew that the clergie had in king Richard the secondes tyme suborned another ____ Collor of a next attempting the like ____ the Marques of Excester, he cawsed the heades of that faction to be cutt of: suche as the howse of guise is now in ffrance who kepe the lorrane title of Caroloningians in breath against the Capiningians or ________.

He ________ the king by mainteyning of equ[..]ins and by holding Towe the over eminent power of such great ones as in tymes past had like bellwethers led the shepish ______ of England against their prince to be knit fast to hym the love of his comons and specially of the Citie of London./
He placed _______ and priors in _______ great howses many lerned men and men _______ against those ____________, _____ men were redie to make surrender of their howses at the kinges __________./

He caused the king to restraine all _______ to Rome & all _______ of his _______ that he for _____ appeales ______ & other causes wherby both he kept treasure and held yt from his enemies & restrayned his enemies from flying to forreine _____ or conference _____ them, he six visitacons to be made of all the religious howses tocching their cons ________, whervppon was retorned the booke called the black booke expressing of _____ suche house the vile lyves and abhominable factes in murdeing of their bretheren in Sodomies, in whordomes in destroying of children in forging of deedes & other infinite horors of lyf in so muche as deuiding all the religious ______ of england into three ______, And of thiese ______ at the least weare Sodomites and this Appeared in writing with the names of their ______ & "their" ______: This was shewed in ___________ and the villaines made knownen and Abhorred.
He caused the king of the Abbies possessions to make such ________ as it behoued infinite multitudes of their owne intrest to wyne _____ the king in houlding them downe _____ he did by _______ menes and thie se among other vz. founding _______ Bishopprickes and _________ ___ thiese possessions selling many of them to many men for reasonable prices exchanging many of them ____ the nobility and other for their auncient possession to their great gaine ______ whome he exchaunged preferring many sufficient _______ to the _______ service who were sone raised to Nobility and some to worshipp and good _______ and all indowed with__________ out of the revenues of Abbies/

Here is all that I can remember

Ther was allso vsed for the manner of the dissolution first _______ _______ and other that could be thervnto _______ or were some of them for that ______ placed by the king made surrender of their howses and Conveyed them to the king by order of law. and had Competent pensions both them selues and their company during their lues/

Some being detected by the said visitation to have the ______ favor not to punishe them ____ reigor nor to publish their infamie for ther vile factes were likewsie Content to surrender ffor all the rest (_____ were then not many) the _________ being made acquainted ____ their vile lives were redilie contented both to confirme their surrenders and to give their _________ to the giving of all the rest to the king./

Now by whome you may lerne the rest I will enforme you/

Mr Chauncellor of the duchie was then the Lord Cromewells servant and I thinke can say muche./

My Lord Treasorer by recordes in secrete tresurie and by collection of _________ of knowledge and by such other meanes as he hathe Counsaile most of all men and best direct this to his naturall Course./

Butt of a private man no man in England is in myne oppinion Comparabile to the recorder of london I am sure he canne ______ vs by _____ and _______ remayning ____ hym very many _______ and I suppose sufficient for this question.
I meane to hast to london the rather to further you in this matter by some Conference _____ you I _______ to be ther on monday I wold ________ have come but that I had before Appointed some Attendance here one my lord Cheyney and other for her _________ service/

I have nothing to forward this matter at London more then I haue here for touching this course: Omnia mea mecum porto /

Mr Milles I am your ________, yours and all his

I Comend to you the towne of Iernemouth [i.e., Yarmouth] so farr as they wilbe well advised for they are honest men. So farre you well

At Sharpenhow in Bedfordshire iiiijor myles beyond Luton xij myles beyond St Talbones this I write because you may know whether to send an other tyme I wold you had a _________ occasion to Come and see This last of august 1581.

Yours assured ffor the residue I must referr you to the Statutes

Endorsed:

A copie of Thomas

Nortons Letter