

Glossary

GLOSSARY

acatery: department which purchased and stored provisions, mainly meat and fish.
advertisement: information.
aglet: ornamental metal tag for fastening garments.
allegiance, on one's: a royal injunction which it was treason to disobey.
Almain: German.
Anabaptist: a sect which practised adult baptism.
ancient: military ensign (flag); ensign-bearer.
andiron: iron kitchen utensil, often to support a spit, or logs.
angel: gold coin, value 10 shillings; angelet: coin value 5 shillings.
apparitor: ecclesiastical court official, summoner, messenger.
Arches, Court of: ecclesiastical court of appeal for the Province of Canterbury.
arquebus: gun supported by a rest.
assay: to try by tasting (usually food or drink to be served to the Queen).
Assizes: regular sessions and trials held in each county by judges.
astonied: astonished.
attainted: condemned for treason to forfeiture of property and of title.
avenor: a chief officer of the Stable, in charge of provender for horses.

Bachelors (of livery companies): junior members.
back sword: sword with one cutting edge.
bait: light refreshment on a journey; feed for horses.
baldrick: belt, girdle, e.g. to support bugle, horn, sword.
ballace, ballas: rose red ruby-like jewel.
ballon: game played with large ball struck with a wooden brace upon the arm.
bandog: mastiff.
bandora, bandore: stringed instrument similar to a lute.
bane: poison.
bannerol: large banner.
banquet: course of sweetmeats, fruit, and wine; dessert.
barb: covering for a war-horse, protective or ornamental.
bark: small ship.
barrel (ale, beer): 36 gallons.
barriers: tournament in which opponents fight across low railings.
base (for horse): part of the horse's trappings.
base court: outer court or back court of castle or mansion.
bastard sword: unusually large sword.
bastillon: small fortress.
bastinado: beating, especially upon the soles of the feet.
battle: may mean battalion; main body of an armed force.
bearing cloth: child's christening robe.
bill (weapon): usually a blade on a long handle.
billet: thick firewood; stick used as a weapon.
black (of a person): dark-haired, swarthy.
black guard: scullions, kitchen labourers.
black jack: large leather jug.
boor: peasant, especially a Dutch peasant.
boot-hose: thick stockings worn inside boots.
bootless: useless, unprofitable.
bouge of court: allowance of provisions and candles at court.
bounden: obliged to, indebted to.
Bowyers: bow-makers.
brabble: brawl, dispute.
brain-sick: diseased in mind, mad.
bravado, to be in a: to offer battle.
brave (appearance): finely dressed.

Glossary

bravery: act of bravado.
braving: challenging, treating with bravado.
brigantine: small swift ship, with sails and oars.
broadcloth: double width cloth.
Broderers: embroiderers. broils: disturbances, turmoil.
broken consort, broken music: group of string and wind instruments.
bruit: rumour.
buck: male fallow deer.
buckhound: small hound for hunting bucks.
buckler: small round shield.
buckram: coarse linen cloth.
budge: lambskin, dressed to resemble fur.
budget: bag, pouch.
buffet: sideboard with shelves to display plate.
bulk (eg. of chariot): body.
buskin: high boot.
butt (ale): 108 gallons; 2 hogsheads.
buttery: store-room for provisions.
butts: target for archery-shooting.

cabinet: small private room, study.
caitiff: poor wretch; villain.
calamint: an aromatic herb.
Cales (Spain): Cadiz.
caliver: light musket.
Candlemas Day: February 2nd.
cankered: ill-natured, malignant (metaphorical).
canted: sloping, slanted.
caparison: ornamental horse-cloth.
capon: castrated cockerel.
carabinier: soldier armed with a carbine or musket.
carbuncle: red-coloured precious stone.
carcanet: jewelled collar, necklace, armband.
carman: carter, carrier.
caroche: coach, carriage.
carpet: thick fabric used usually as a table-cloth.
carrack: large ship; galleon.
carre: four-wheeled vehicle.
carte: map, chart.
cartel: written challenge.
cast, to (a sum): calculate cast (noun): pair of hawks.
Cathay: China.
caul: close fitting cap for a woman; net for the hair.
challenge (heraldic): a summons to a tournament or duel.
Chamberer: Gentlewoman of the Bedchamber.
chandlery: candlemakers' workshop.
changeable taffeta: shot silk.
chaplet: garland, wreath, circlet.
character: form of shorthand.
chargeable: costly, expensive; heavy.
charger: large flat dish; war-horse.
cheat bread: second quality bread.
Cheque, Clerk of the: clerk in charge of total monies received.
chested: placed in a chest. churching day: day of thanksgiving for a woman a month after childbirth.

Glossary

churl: low-bred fellow.
cittern: stringed instrument similar to a guitar.
clavichord: small keyboard instrument.
climacteric, climacterical year: usually 63rd year, critical for health.
cloth of state/estate: canopy; cloth spread above a throne.
cochineal: a red dye.
cocked shoe: upturned shoe.
coffer: lockable box or chest.
Cofferer: a household treasurer.
cog, cogging: cheating, deceit.
coif: small close-fitting cap.
coil: noisy disturbance, tumult.
collar of esses: gold chain with repeated forms of the letter S, worn as a symbol of authority.
comfit: sweetmeat made from fruit and sugar; sweet coated in sugar.
commendam, to hold in: temporarily holding a vacant benefice.
Commendator: Spanish title for commander, viceroy.
commonalty: the common people.
commonweal: common well-being, general good.
commonwealth: the whole body of the people, the body politic.
compass (size): area, extent, space; boundary.
composition money: money paid instead of another obligation, especially instead of delivering provisions to the royal court when required by a Purveyor.
conceited comedy: ingenious, fantastic.
conceits: notions; fancy articles or trifles.
coney, cony: rabbit.
confiture: jam, preserves.
congé: leave, dismissal.
congé d'élire: permission to elect, e.g. a bishop.
conny-catching: cheating, swindling.
consort of music: group of string or wind instruments.
contumelious: insolent.
convent, to: convene, assemble, summon.
Convocation: assembly of the Church, or of a university.
Coopers: makers of barrels.
copyhold: tenure of land as part of a manor (as opposed to freehold).
coranto: a dance with a gliding step.
Cordwainers: workers in leather, usually shoemakers.
cornet (military): standard of a troop of cavalry; standard-bearer.
coronal: coronet.
corslet: breastplate and backplate; cuirass.
Counter: name of two London prisons, in the Poultry and in Wood Street.
counterbuff, counterbuss: an exchange of blows.
counterpoise: opposite point in an argument.
course of field/in field: tournament outdoors.
courser: large fast powerful horse.
coursing: hare-hunting with hounds.
Court Letter: form of handwriting used in the law courts; court-hand.
Court of Common Pleas: dealt with civil cases between subjects.
Court of King's or Queen's Bench: dealt with civil and criminal cases, especially those in which the Crown had a special interest.
cousin german: first cousin, being son or daughter of one's aunt or uncle.
cover, to/to be covered: to wear one's hat in presence of royalty or person of higher rank.
crazed: in ill-health, infirm.
cresset: iron container for a light.
cross-cloth: cloth worn across the forehead; cloth hung in front of the Cross.

Glossary

crown (coin): coin value 5 shillings.
Crown of the Sun: foreign coin, worth 6 shillings in 1575.
cruise: small container for liquid.
cubit: measure of length, 18 inches.
culverin: large cannon.
cup of assay: small cup for assay (tasting) of a drink.
cupboard: sideboard with shelves to display plate, crockery.
Curriers: dressers of leather.
curtain (of fort): wall connecting two bastions, towers, gates.
curtal: horse with docked tail.
cypress: transparent material.

dag: small pistol.
daily waiter: one who waits daily in attendance.
damasking: ornamenting.
deals: boards, planks.
degree: step.
demesne ground: estate grounds.
demi-culverin: small cannon.
denizen: citizen not native-born; denization: naturalisation.
descanting: commenting upon (metaphorical).
devise/devising: talk, conversing.
diaper: linen cloth woven with simple patterns.
diet: daily allowance of food and drink.
disabling speech: speech disparaging one's own competence or fitness for appointment as Speaker of House of Commons, prior to appointment.
disappointment: appointment changed or failed to be kept.
disfurniture: deprivation, removal.
distasted: disliked.
distemper: disturb, put out of temper.
divers: many, various.
docket: label or endorsement briefly indicating the contents of a document.
dolour: grief.
donative: gift, largesse.
double beer/wine: double strength.
doublet: close-fitting upper body garment.
dower: the portion of a husband's estate allowed to his widow for life.
dragoman: Turkish interpreter.
draught (fishing): catch of fish.
draught (horses): team of horses with cart or plough.
dredge: a sweetmeat.
ducat: foreign gold coin varying in value.
dump, in a: melancholy, in low spirits.
durance, in: in custody, prison.
dust-box: box for powder or fine sand, for drying ink.

earnest penny: small sum paid as a deposit for a greater sum or to secure a bargain.
easement: right to use something not one's own, eg. a right of way.
eftsoons: again; soon afterwards.
ell: measure of length, 45 inches.
emption: purchase.
enchased plate: engraved, ornamented with engraving.
endite, to: to dictate words.
engrossed: written in legal form.
Epistler: one who reads the Epistle in a Communion service.
escutcheon: shield depicting a coat of arms.

Glossary

estate, cloth of: cloth placed above a throne; canopy.
evidence-house: for housing or storing documents.
experimented: experienced.

faggots, bundle of: wood cut for firewood.
falchion: broad curved sword.
falconet: light piece of ordnance.
falling-band: band or collar worn flat around the neck.
fallow deer: species of deer of pale brown or reddish-yellow colour.
farthing: coin worth one quarter of one penny.
farthingale: circular stiffened underskirt; framework of hoops.
feat man: suitable.
field-bed: bedstead with curtains forming a canopy, or folding bed for travelling.
filed, well: polished.
firkin (of ale, beer): 9 gallons.
flagon: large bottle.
flail: instrument for threshing corn by hand.
flasket: shallow basket; small flask.
Fleming: Flemish-speaking native of Flanders.
Fletchers: makers of arrows.
flitch: side of bacon.
flourished: ornamented; decorated with flourishes.
flouting: mocking.
fly-boat: small boat, fast sailing-boat.
foil (jewellery): setting.
foot-cloth: richly ornamented cloth laid over a horse's back.
foot-pace: step, platform, dais.
force (to hunt deer of force): on horseback with hounds.
fore-part: front part of a piece of dress.
forewearied: wearied, tired out.
forswear, to: swear falsely, perjure oneself, break an oath.
forsooth: in truth, truly.
fraught: burdened, loaded with freight.
freebooter: pirate.
freeman's song: a kind of lively song.
French crown: English name for the écu; coin worth 6 shillings in 1561.
French hood: pleated hood worn over the back of the head.
French pox: syphilis.
frieze: coarse woollen cloth.
frock (for men): cassock, gown, long coat.
froward: perverse.
furniture: (of horse) harness; (of bed) with all its coverings.
fustian: coarse cloth.

galleass: heavy low-built vessel with oars and sails, larger than a galley.
galleon: ship of war; shorter but higher than a galley.
galley: large vessel with oars and sails.
galliard: a quick and lively dance.
gallow-glass: Irish soldier.
gally-gaskins; gaskins: wide breeches or hose.
garboil: disturbance; brawl.
genet, gennet: small horse, often Spanish.
gestes: itinerary of stops on a royal progress.
gillyflower: scented flower, especially a clove-scented pink.
Girdlers: makers of girdles.
goodman/goodwife: courtesy term for man or woman below rank of gentleman/woman.

Glossary

gorget: throat armour.
Gospeller: one who reads the Gospel in a Communion service.
gossip: godparent; a close woman friend.
grain, in: fast dyed.
grandguard: a piece of plate armour.
gravelled (person): perplexed, puzzled.
Green Cloth, Board of: department of royal household under the Lord Steward, controlling numerous items of expenditure, and with some judicial authority within the court. It met around a table covered with green cloth.
green-headed: inexperienced, raw.
groat: silver coin worth four pennies.
grogain, grogram: coarse fabric of silk and wool.
Groyne, the (Spain): Corunna. guard (clothing): ornamental border of a garment.
guidon: flag, pennant.

haberdin: dried salt cod.
habillements, abillements, biliments: ornamental wearing attire.
halberd: spear with a sharp blade near its tip.
hale: fit and well.
half-pace, halpace: dais; step.
Hanaper: Chancery department to which fees were paid for sealing documents.
hanger: loop or strap on a girdle for attaching a scabbard for a sword.
hanging lock: padlock.
hangings: tapestries.
Hanse Towns: league of Germanic towns whose merchants had a house in London.
hap: good fortune; mishap.
haply: by chance, maybe.
harbinger: one sent in advance to provide lodgings.
harness: armour.
harpy: fabled monster with woman's face and bird's body, claws, and wings.
harquebus: short gun supported by a rest.
hart: largest and oldest male red deer.
hatchment: tablet with a coat of arms.
hautboy: an early type of oboe.
haven: harbour.
havocked: laid waste.
headborough: Constable or Deputy Constable. heels, to lay or lie someone by the: arrest, fetter, disgrace.
henchmen: attendants; (at court): Pages of honour, abolished in 1565.
hereditament: property that can be inherited.
heronshaw: young heron.
hind: agricultural labourer; mature deer.
hippocras: wine flavoured with spices.
hobbies: ordinary riding-horses; small horses.
hobby-horse: stick with a horse's head which children ride as a toy horse.
Hock Monday/Tuesday: second Monday/Tuesday after Easter.
hogshead (ale, beer): 54 gallons.
holland: linen cloth, originally from Holland.
hoop (of fruit, nuts): quart pot bound with hoops.
Horners: workers in horn.
horologe: clock, time-piece.
horsemeat: provender for horses.
hoy: small ship.
hue and cry: outcry or proclamation calling for the pursuit of a criminal.
hueing and hallowing: shouting urging on hounds in a hunt.
huffy tuffy: swaggering.

Glossary

husbandman: one who tills the land; smallholder.
huswife's cloth: linen cloth for housewife's use.
hydrographical: relating to a survey or chart of the seas.
hyssop: aromatic herb.

imp: affectionate term for a young child.
imposthumation: festering sore, abscess, swelling.
imprest: advance of money.
incontinent/incontinently: immediate/immediately.
indite, to: to put into written words.
inhibition: formal prohibition.
inkle: linen tape.
impresa: device or emblem, with an appropriate motto.

jack: large leather drinking vessel.
Janissary: Turkish infantryman; guard for the Sultan. jennet: small Spanish horse.
jestes: itinerary of stops on a royal progress.
jointure: property granted to a wife for life, taking effect when widowed.
journey, to travel in: to travel by daily stages, using the same horse.
Jubilee: year in which Papal indulgences might be obtained by pilgrims to Rome.
Jurat: civic officials, eg. in Dover, Sandwich, Winchester.

kenning: within sight or view.
kern: Irish peasant or foot-soldier.
kilderkin: cask holding 18 gallons of beer, 16 gallons of ale.
Killingworth: Kenilworth (Warwickshire). kirtle: woman's gown, usually worn with an over-gown.
Knight Marshal: royal household officer with jurisdiction over offenders in the court, and in the Verge (12 miles around the court).
knop: ornamental knob.
knot garden: garden laid out in an intricate design.

lair (plate): ewer.
laund: glade.
lawn: fine linen.
league (distance): 3 miles.
Leash, Groom/Yeoman of: officials in charge of hounds.
let (noun): hindrance; (verb): hinder, prevent.
lewd: bad, evil; lascivious.
Liberties (of town, university): district over which a town's or university's privileges extend.
lie, give the lie: accuse a person to his face of lying.
lieger: resident ambassador.
limn, to: to paint; (especially) to illuminate, or paint miniatures.
ling: species of salt-water fish.
link: torch carried at night.
list (of cloth): border, strip.
lists: an enclosed area for a tournament.
litter: couch carried on men's shoulders, or by beasts of burden.
livery: uniform worn by servants or attendants.
livery (food): provisions, food and drink.
livery pot: pot in which liveries of wine are served out.
lockram: coarse linen.
lodging scutcheon: temporary board with painted coats of arms set up by English ambassadors on their inn or other lodgings.
long seas: long sea passage.

Glossary

Loriners: makers of bits for horses, and other small iron ware.
luzard/luzern: lynx, lynx fur.

maidenhead trencher: dish with a representation of the Virgin Mary.
maintenance, cap/hat of: symbol of high rank carried before the Queen in processions.
malapert: impertinent, impudent.
mall: bag; mall-horse: horse carrying bags.
manchet: fine wheaten bread.
mandilion: short loose coat with hanging sleeves.
Marches: districts of England bordering Scotland and Wales.
marchpane: marzipan.
mark: two-thirds of a pound sterling, 13s4d (not a coin).
mask: silk or velvet material to protect face from sun or dust.
mazer: wood cup or bowl.
meetly: moderately, suitable.
Mercers: merchants, mainly of textiles.
mess: group of usually four people eating together.
metheglin: mead; mixture of honey and water.
Michaelmas Day: September 29.
mignon: favourite.
minion: favourite; small piece of ordnance.
miskin: dunghill, rubbish-heap.
misprision: misdemeanour or failure of duty by a public official.
mithridate: mixture of various ingredients, an antidote to infectious diseases.
moiety: portion.
moor-poot: young grouse.
morion: metal helmet.
morris-pike: type of pike, weapon supposedly of Moorish origin.
motley: cloth of mixed colours.
mulet: young or small mule.
mullet jewel: 5-pointed star-shaped jewel.
murrey: mulberry red, purple red.
murrion: metal helmet.
musk cat: civet cat, or musk deer.

napery: household linen, table linen.
Narrow Seas: usually the English Channel, between England and France.
neat: cow.
netherstocks: stockings, usually knee-length.
Newhaven (France): Le Havre.
nice: precise, particular; refined, fastidious.
night-gown: loose gown worn indoors and out, by men and women.
nip: rebuke, reproof, sharp comment.
noble (coin): gold coin, value one-third of a pound, 6s 8d.
Noise: band of musicians.
noisome: offensive.

oblation: offering, as at a Communion service.
offertory: that part of a Mass or Communion service at which offerings are made.
orangeado: candied orange-peel.
oratory: small private chapel.
ordinary, an: eating-house.
orient pearl: oriental, from the Indian seas; a brilliant pearl.
overshot: overreached, gone too far.
overthwart: placed or lying cross-wise or across something else.
overwatched: wearied with watching or keeping awake too long.

Glossary

padding-horse: ambling horse.
padding-thread: stout thread or twine for tying up padding.
padding, French: soft saddle used in France.
padding: stage or platform on which scenes or tableaux are represented;
tableau on a fixed stage.
padding: painstaking, laborious.
padding-Stainers: painters on wood and cloth.
padding of stairs: flight of stairs.
padding/English padding: part of Ireland over which English jurisdiction was most established, mainly around Dublin.
paddingfrey: small riding horse, usually for a woman.
padding bed: small or poor bed or couch.
padding: disease of the nervous system, sometimes causing tremors; paralysis.
padding: paltry, trifling.
padding gilt: partly gilded silver.
padding: apparitor, ecclesiastical court official, messenger.
padding: paddock, small enclosed field.
padding (weapon): pike with a long double-edged blade.
padding: division of Heralds' fees amongst themselves.
padding: garment covering chest and neck, neckerchief.
paddingmain: lace or ribbons for edging clothes.
padding: shallow dish for Communion bread.
padding: the Lord's Prayer in Latin; rosary.
padding: a slow and stately dance.
padding: tablet bearing a symbol of Christ, Mary, or a saint.
padding: weigh, ponder.
padding: pea-pod.
padding: small pennant, flag.
padding, Gentleman: one of the Queen's bodyguard of gentlemen.
padding: shed on the side of a house.
padding: by chance, perchance; beyond question or doubt.
padding pan: pan holding a mixture of perfumes.
padding: small engine for breaching a wall or blowing in a door or gate.
padding: decorated skirt or underskirt, intended to be seen.
padding, window: support for a window.
padding (weapon): long staff with a spear at its top.
padding: pillowcase.
padding: fabric with small cuts, giving a decorative pattern.
padding: labourers going with or in advance of soldiers, road-makers.
padding: small earthenware pot or pan.
padding: species of apple.
padding: Spanish gold coin, value fixed at 5s10d, 1560.
padding (weapon): small firearm, pistol.
padding-house: room in which ale and wine is kept.
padding: bill or poster; formal licence or warrant, permit.
padding: plan of house, map.
padding: poem, poetry.
padding: fastenings for clothes with tags or aglets at the end.
padding: Pole.
padding: despicable coward.
padding: mixture of aromatic substances made into a ball and carried in a small box or bag.
padding royal: species of apple.
padding: pumpkin.
padding: dagger.
padding: parrot; a shade of green.
padding: polished purple stone.

Glossary

porringer: small bowl for porridge, soup.
port: demeanour; stately style of living.
portepane: cloth for carrying bread to the table.
portigue: Portuguese gold coin.
Portingale: Portuguese.
posset: drink of hot milk.
Post, Dutch/French: official in charge of sending mail to Low Countries/France.
post, to travel in: with speed, using a relay of post-horses.
postage: charge for hire of post-horses.
postern: private door or gate; back or side door.
post-horse: horse kept at an inn or stable for hire.
posting: travelling with speed.
posts, to lay: to set up a chain of men with post-horses.
posy: short motto or verse of poetry.
pottage: thick soup, broth; dish of boiled vegetables.
pottle: pot or tankard holding 4 pints.
pox, French: syphilis.
practice: plot, plotting.
prebend/prebendary: holder of part of the revenues of a cathedral granted to a Canon as his stipend.
precept: written command or instructions.
precisian: one who is rigidly precise; Puritan.
prepensd: premeditated.
present/presently: at once.
press: cupboard for storing clothes or linen.
prest: ready; prest money: enlistment money; money paid in advance.
prick: archery target.
pricker: huntsman, mounted attendant at a hunt.
pricking Sheriffs: selecting Sheriffs annually by making a 'prick' or mark against or through their names on a list.
prick-song: written or printed music; music sung from written/printed notes.
primero: gambling card-game, each player having four cards.
privity: knowledge.
privy: private; a latrine.
privy to: having knowledge of.
Privy Purse, Keeper of: royal official who paid the Queen's private expenses.
Proctor: official at Cambridge and Oxford Universities with various functions, including discipline of the students.
prolocutor: spokesman; Speaker of House of Commons.
proof (of a play): first or trial version.
proper (person): good-looking, worthy.
prophesyings: gatherings of clergy to listen to and discuss two or three sermons preached on the same text, in front of a lay audience.
pry: peer, look at closely.
puce: purple-brown.
punchon staff: staff with a sharp point.
purples: fever characterised by purple marks or spots.
Pursuivant: a junior heraldic officer; royal or official messenger.
Purveyor: official who gathers and purchases provisions for the royal court by authority, the custom being known as purveyance.

quadrant: quadrangle.
quadrate: square area or space.
quartan ague: fever with a fit every 4th day.
quarter (ale): quart, quarter gallon; 2 pints.
quarter (iron, wood): square panel.
quarter, to (heraldry): to divide a shield into four sections.

Glossary

quarter-waiter: official in attendance for a quarter of a year.
queasy: inclined to sickness; unsettled times or state of affairs.
quintain: post with an object fixed to it to be run at with a lance or pole.
quittance: release from debt or other obligation; receipt; recompense.
quorum: Justices of the Peace with special knowledge of the law.
quotidian ague: fever recurring daily.

receipt (of a house): capacity, size.
recusant: one who refuses to attend Church of England services, usually a Roman Catholic.
relict: widow.
Requests, Master of: head of the Court of Requests, hearing suits brought directly by petitioners to the monarch.
rocker: attendant who rocks a cradle.
round, to (of speech): speak, whisper; chide, rebuke.
royal (coin): gold coin, worth 15 shillings.
rue: herb with a bitter scent.
ruffling: swaggering.
rundlet, runlet: cask holding wine or other drink.
running: tilting, as at the Accession Day Tilts.
running at the ring: riding at a metal ring suspended from a post, to carry it off on the point of a lance.
running hand: cursive form of handwriting.
rugg: coarse woollen cloth.
ruth: grief, sorrow; compassion, pity.

sack: dry white wine.
sackbut: bass trumpet, with a slide similar to a trombone.
sackcloth: coarse fabric.
sad (colour): dark, sombre.
sadness: earnestness.
safe-guard: outer skirt worn by women to protect clothes whilst riding.
saker: small cannon.
sallet: salad.
salsery: saucery, department concerned with preparing sauces.
sanguine (colour): blood-red.
sarcenet, sarsenet: fine soft silk.
Sarum: Salisbury, Wiltshire. saunderbeater: Grocers' Company member or official with unspecified duties.
saving journey, a: neither a gaining nor a losing journey.
scaffold: temporary platform or stage; raised stand for spectators.
scaldier: one who scalds utensils or animal carcasses with boiling water, in a scalding-house.
Scarborough warning: very short or no warning.
score-cheque: scorecard for tournament.
Scotch cap: thick woollen cloth cap decorated with two streamers.
scrivener: one who drafts or copies documents.
scutcheon: shield depicting a coat of arms.
seisin: to give or take possession.
seminary priest: Roman Catholic priest educated in a foreign seminary or college for training priests.
sequestered (of clergy): deprived.
setting dog: dog trained to set game, eg. pheasants, or mark their position.
setting-stick: stick used to make pleats in ruffs.
Sewer: attendant who supervises the serving of dishes at a meal.
shambles: meat-market; slaughter-house.
shamefastness: bashfulness, modesty.

Glossary

shawm: reeded instrument related to the oboe.
shift, to: to change one's apparel.
shilling: coin value 12 pennies.
shrewd: malicious, evil-disposed; (of children): naughty.
shroud (of a ship): ropes attached to the top of a ship's mast.
shrove, shroving: festivities at Shrove-tide, before Lent begins.
sillabub, syllabub: drink or dish made from curdled milk or cream.
silly: simple.
silver-gilt: silver with a thin layer of gold.
singing-bread: wafer bread used during Mass.
Slavonian: Slav, Slavonic.
sledge: a sweetmeat.
slivers: ribbons.
slops: wide breeches.
small ale/beer: weak.
snuffkin: muff, for keeping hands warm.
sort (company): group, number of people.
sort (dances): group of dances.
sounding: swooning.
sovereign (coin): value thirty shillings.
spark: small jewel.
sparver: bed with a canopy.
spinet: keyboard instrument similar to a harpsichord.
squares, at: in disagreement with.
staff-torch: tall thick candle.
stand of ale: ale in a wooden vessel.
standard: flag, ensign; storage-chest.
Standards, in London: tall poles, eg. at Cornhill.
standing, a (hunting): stand for hunters, from which to shoot game.
standing-house: royal house kept ready for occupation.
standish: inkstand.
starting-hole: hole in which a hunted animal, eg. rabbit, takes refuge.
state: canopy; chair of state: raised chair or throne with a canopy.
state, cloth of state: cloth placed above a throne; canopy.
Statute cap: woollen cap ordained by Statute to be worn.
Steel-yard: London base of the merchants of the Hanse Towns.
stick (eg. of tapestry): a measure of a length of a roll of fabric.
still-glass: used in distillation.
stock-fish: unsalted dried fish.
stomach: spirit, pride.
stomacher: ornamental material covering chest and stomach.
stone (medical): gall-stone.
stone-bow: cross-bow or catapult for shooting stones.
stone/stoned horse: stallion.
stools: commodes; stool-horse: horse which carries commodes.
stope, stoup: drinking vessel.
storial show: historical show.
strait: narrow; strict.
straitness: narrowness; parsimony.
stranger: (usually) a foreigner.
strike (measure of weight): often two bushels.
subsidy: financial aid granted by Parliament to the Crown.
suckets: fruits preserved in sugar.
sugar-loaf: cone-shaped mass of sugar.
sugar-plate: sweetmeat made in a flat cake.
summoner: official who summons or warns people to appear in court.
sumpter-horse: a pack-horse.

Glossary

surcoat: outer coat, sometimes with a coat of arms depicted on it.
swart: swarthy.
sweet bag: bag containing sweet perfumed powder.
Swethland: Sweden.

table jewel: jewel cut with a flat upper surface.
tables: small writing-tablets; (to play at): backgammon.
tabling-house: gaming house.
tabor: small drum; taborer: tabor-player.
tall (man): strong in combat, bold (usually also tall in height).
targe, target: light shield.
tarrance: temporary residence in a place.
tarry: delay, wait.
taskwork: piecework.
tassel: male hawk, tercel.
Tawyers, Grey or White: workers in grey or white leather.
temerarious: reckless, rash.
tercel: male hawk or falcon.
term: one of the four law terms in a year, Hilary, Easter, Trinity, Michaelmas. tertian ague: fever with a fit every 3rd day.
tester: flat canopy of a four-poster bed.
thereanent: about, concerning.
thought (to die of): anxiety, depression.
thwart a street: across a street.
thwart practice: obstructive, perverse.
tick (bedding): feathers or wool in a mattress.
tickle (to be): unreliable, fickle.
tiffany: transparent fabric or gauze.
Tilt: tournament on horseback.
tilt-boat: boat with cover, awning.
timber: bales of 40 fur-skins.
tippet: cape, short cloak.
tipstaff/tipstave: an official carrying a staff as badge of office.
tissue: fabric woven of gold thread on a light foundation of silk.
tittle: tiny amount.
tittling: whispering.
toil: large netted enclosure, used when hunting deer.
tourney: single or group combat with swords, on foot or horseback.
towardliness: forwardness in learning.
towardly (usually of a young person): promising, hopeful.
towardness: readiness, willingness.
train (of people): retinue; body of attendants, followers.
train or trained band: local militia.
train oil: oil from fish.
translate (apparel, material): alter.
travail: work, labour, toil.
travers: withdrawing room, usually in chapel or church; enclosed compartment.
trencher: flat dish for serving food.
trim (clothes, person): neat, smart; adorned, dressed up.
triumph: public festivity, especially a tournament.
troches: ornamental jewelled buttons.
trueloves: true-love knots, intertwined knots.
trump (of fame): proclaim or celebrate fame (like a trumpeter).
trunchman/woman: spokesman/woman, often in masques; interpreter.
tuft-taffeta: taffeta woven with silk tufts.
tumbril: high sided two-wheeled cart.
tun (wine): cask holding 252 gallons.

Glossary

turn-broach, turn-broth, turn-spit: person who turns a metal rod used for roasting meat at a fire.

unfiled (jewel): unpolished.

Upholders: upholsterers.

veil: thin head covering; loose gown of very light material.

vellat: velvet.

Venetians (apparel): long breeches.

Venice gold or silver: thread imported from Venice.

Verge: district within 12 mile radius of the royal court.

virginal: keyboard instrument resembling a harpsichord.

vis à vis: counterpart.

Visitation: visit to examine the state of a parish or diocese, eg. by a bishop.

vizard: mask, visor.

voidance: emptying out, clearing away, removal.

voidy: repast of wine and sweetmeats.

volt: turn; a kind of dance.

voltige: vault.

waftage, wafting: conveying by ship.

Waits: a band of civic musicians.

Walloon: French speaking native of part of the Low Countries.

ward: prison, custody.

ward: a minor (under age), subject to a guardian.

Wards and Liveries, Court of: for trial of cases relating to wards, presided over by a Master.

watchet: light blue.

watching liveries: liveries for the Queen's Guard whilst on watch.

watchword: password; prearranged signal to begin an attack.

Waymaker, Waymaster: maker/surveyor of roads.

welt: narrow strip of material.

weltering (waves): raging, surging.

wharfage: dues for use of a wharf.

wherry: light rowing-boat; large four-wheeled cart without sides.

whiffler: attendant employed to keep the way clear, eg. for a procession, who carried a white staff and usually wore a velvet coat with a gold chain.

winding-sheet: shroud for a corpse.

wist: know.

withal: as well, in addition, moreover.

woad: blue dye-stuff; plant cultivated for the blue colouring matter obtained from it.

worship, ladies and gentlemen of: esteemed, of good repute and standing, worshipful.

wrought: worked, eg. needlework.

wyth: branch brought to court at Easter 1559,1560.

yard: measure of length: 36 inches; workman's tool measuring a yard.

yard (in ship): spar attached to a mast.

yardarm: one end of a yard in a ship.