

Supplemental Readings for Folger Symposium on the London Bills of Mortality (https://folgerpedia.folger.edu/London_Bills_of_Mortality_\(symposium\)))

These readings do not constitute a comprehensive bibliography. Rather, symposium presenters and chairs were invited to suggest readings that might prove helpful in understanding how they developed their approaches to the topics they addressed. Readings may have informed more than one session and, in a reflection of the interlocking of sessions, several readings were suggested for more than one session and several presenters suggested works by other presenters or session chairs.
