

The English Reformation: reading

The reading lists below consist of a listing of the Primary Sources for discussion which we will use in the ten sessions, and which you will receive in a separate bundle, each session also accompanied by some suggestions for secondary reading. The secondary reading suggestions are meant to be helpful, rather than intimidating! No-one will be able to read more than a portion of them. I have added Folger call numbers where I have found them.

Abbreviations used below for Journal titles:

- E.H.R. English Historical Review* [Folger: DA20 .E58]
H.J. Historical Journal [Folger: D1 .C25]
J.Eccl.H. Journal of Ecclesiastical History [Folger: BR140 .J6]
16th Cent. E.S. Sixteenth Century Essays and Studies

*In the secondary reading-lists, one asterisk * denotes a useful introductory discussion. Two asterisks  denote a major or classic work on the subject. Look out also for notes of review articles.*
